3.1 Are you patient ?

- Talk about people's behavior using manner adverbs and adjectives.

Listen to the next phrases, identify the meaning

Peter is a careful driver. He drives
very carefully

Gordon plays very well. He is a good
guitar player

We had heavy snow yesterday. It snowed heavily

We use adverbs of manner after a verb to describe the verb. We use an adverb of manner to say how something happens or how we do something.

It rained heavily. (=We are describing how it rained.)

He always replies quickly. (=We are describing how he replies)

We use adjectives before a noun or after the verb be.

This is an expensive guitar.

This guitar is expensive.

We use adjectives to describe a noun (before a noun or after the verb be), and we use adverbs of manner to describe a verb (after the verb or verb + object).

Compare:

Robert plays the guitar well. (=We are describing the verb, in other words, how Robert plays the guitar.)

Robert is a good guitar player. (=We are describing the noun, Robert.)

Complete these phrases with the correct forms of the words given.

- 1 I know this sounds bad // badly, but I love to drive really quick // fast. I think I drive really good // well, though. I don't get reckless // recklessly when I get behind the wheel or anything.
- 2 I try hard // hardly to be neat and tidy. Like, I always put my keys on the shelf automatic // automatically when I get home. You can lose your keys so easy // easily.
- 3 I think it's important // importantly to take work serious // seriously. I mean, it only seems right. If you do a job good // well you feel good // well about yourself, too.
- 4 My boss can get impatient // impatiently sometimes. Like, she wants instant // instantly replies to her texts and emails. She just doesn't want to wait when she needs an answer quick // quickly
- 5 People aren't very patient // patiently when they have to wait in long lines. They don't speak to the clerks very polite // politely , either.

Are you patient, do you wait patiently for someone who is late for a meeting ?

- Think in different scenarios where you either act patiently or get impatient, send your notes and audio to your teacher

Now listen and repeat these questions. Then send an audio to your teacher with your answers.

- Do you do homework assignments carefully? Or do you just do them quickly?
- Do you learn new English words easily? Or do you have to work hard at it?
- Do you usually do well on tests? Or do you just get passing grades?
- Do you practice English regularly outside of class? Or do you just use it in class?
- Do you see things differently from your classmates? Or do you share their opinions?
- Do you listen to class announcements carefully? Or do you ignore them?

Summarize: Create a chart with different adjectives and adverbs if possible, add some phrases to contrast the meaning, send your notes and audio to your teacher
